General & policy servicing

Q. What is ICICI Lombard?

A. ICICI Lombard General Insurance Company Limited is a private sector general insurer in India that offers products such as motor, health, travel, and home insurance. (Ref: [5])

Q. How will I know if any changes were made to my policy during the policy period?

A. Changes during the policy period are typically done through an endorsement, and the endorsement is confirmed with an endorsement letter sent to the customer. (Ref: [1])

Q. How can I create an online account with ICICI Lombard to access services?

A. You can sign up through the customer login section on the official website. After submitting the signup form, you receive a reference number and the login is activated (as indicated on the FAQs page). Your account can provide access to policy certificate, claim forms, and network hospital lists. (Ref: [1])

Q. Can I increase the Sum Insured (SI) at renewal?

A. The FAQs note that SI can be increased at renewal (online or at a branch). A fresh waiting period may apply to the enhanced SI amount from the date of enhancement, but not to the base SI. (Ref: [1])

Cancellation & refunds

Q. How can I cancel my policy before the expiry date?

A. The FAQs describe a 15-day 'free look' window from receipt of the policy for cancellation via the free look request form / written notice (registered post or registered email). After the free look period, you can still cancel before expiry using a similar process, with refund on short-term rates for the remaining period. Refunds are described as being processed via NEFT. (Ref: [1])

Q. Can ICICI Lombard cancel my policy before the expiry date?

A. According to the FAQs, the insurer may cancel a policy in cases such as misrepresentation, fraud, non-disclosure of material facts, or non-cooperation, after sending a written notice (15 days' notice mentioned). (Ref: [1])

Health claims (cashless / reimbursement)

Q. What should I do in case of a health insurance claim?

A. For planned hospitalisation or emergency services, the FAQs advise using your Health ID Card at a network hospital to avail cashless service, and calling the helpline number printed on your cashless claim card for assistance. (Ref: [1])

Q. How can I intimate or file a health claim?

A. The FAQs list multiple options: calling the 24x7 toll-free number, sending an SMS keyword, or emailing the health claims mailbox. They also mention intimating planned hospitalisation at least 48 hours before admission and informing within 24 hours for emergencies. (Ref: [1])

Q. What is the difference between cashless and reimbursement claims?

A. The FAQs explain that cashless claims are paid directly to the hospital (subject to approvals), while reimbursement claims involve you paying the hospital first and then submitting documents for reimbursement of the admissible amount. (Ref: [1])

Q. How long does claim settlement take?

A. The FAQs mention that, once all required documents and queries are completed, cashless claims are settled within 4 hours with the hospital, while reimbursement claims are settled via NEFT within 14 days of submission of all required documents (subject to terms). (Ref: [1])

Q. For certain ICICI Bank-linked covers, is there a general process for claim filing?

A. ICICI Bank's 'How to claim' page (for certain insurance covers) notes: inform the ICICI Lombard call centre within 15 days of loss/damage; ICICI Lombard will advise documents; submit documents; and payment is made within 15 working days of complete documents when investigation is not required. (Ref: [4])

Home insurance basics (common questions)

Q. If I rent out my house, are my tenants covered under Home Insurance?

A. The FAQs note that the rightful owner insures the asset. If you own the building, you insure the civil structure (building insurance). Tenants would need separate insurance for their contents/belongings. (Ref: [1])

Q. Is AC damage due to usual technical process covered under home insurance?

A. The FAQs state admissibility depends on the specific product issued. If there is no mechanical/electrical breakdown cover, technical-process breakdown of the AC is not covered; cover may apply only if the damage is caused by insured perils under that policy. (Ref: [1])

Q. If fire spreads to my premises (e.g., garden catching fire), is it covered?

A. The FAQs indicate that spread of fire to the insured premises is covered, provided the fire is not a deliberate action of the insured. (Ref: [1])

Q. Is burglary covered if valuables are stolen outside my premises?

A. The FAQs say burglary outside the insured premises is generally not covered, because the cover is premises-based and linked to property inside the premises. (Ref: [1])

Q. Is loss covered if a servant is involved in burglary?

A. The FAQs state loss or damage from burglary/attempted burglary involving servants is not covered. (Ref: [1])

Q. If I use my home as a workplace, is business inventory covered?

A. The FAQs mention that home insurance is for residential property; if you use the home as a place of business, you may need a separate 'Merchant Cover' for business inventory/property. (Ref: [1])

Customer support & grievance redressal

Q. How can I contact ICICI Lombard customer support?

A. The KYC page lists: toll-free contact 1800 2666 (available 24x7), email customersupport@icicilombard.com, and the registered office address at ICICI Lombard House, 414 Veer Savarkar Marg, Prabhadevi, Mumbai - 400025. (Ref: [2])

Q. Where can I raise a service request or grievance for ICICI Lombard policies bought via ICICI Bank channels?

A. ICICI Bank's 'Lombard Service Request' page provides quick links for ICICI Lombard service requests, grievance redressal, and claim processing. (Ref: [3])

Q. If my complaint is not resolved, how can I escalate to the regulator (IRDAI)?

A. ICICI Bank's page lists IRDAI escalation options including the IGCC toll-free number 155255, email complaints@irda.gov.in, and registering complaints on the IRDAI IGMS portal, among other details. (Ref: [3])
